Four new coaches give Torexe teams a boost

TOREXE Volleyball Club has added four new coaches to its existing coaching staff.

Dave Samuals, Ian Greaves, Dave Reece and Neil Crook all passed a level one coaching course, taken by former England International and EVA staff coach Barry Swan.

Samuals, who is also Torexe chairman, said: "It's vital for the development of volleyball in this area — and for this club in particular — to have a strong base of qualified coaches if we are to build on the success our premier sides have enjoyed this season."

Anybody interested in taking up volleyball is welcome to attend sessions for beginners at Clifton Hill Sports Centre each Friday (6.45 to 8.0).
