Crusaders provide fellow strugglers with a win

SERVING You! broke their duck at last in Division 1 of the Exeter Volleyball League with a 3-0 victory over fellow strugglers Torexe Crusaders.

Both teams were closely matched in the first two sets, but Serving You! just kept the upper hand winning 15-11, 15-13.

The Crusaders were unable to hit back in the final set as Serving You! kept their composure to go and win it 15-5.

Captain Andy Pym was player of the match, and he will be pleased with this result even though his side are still propping up the rest of the division.

They were not as fortunate against Teignmouth however, whose experience showed as they beat them in straight sets 15-4, 15-9, 15-10 with Jon Everist nominated as player of the match.

Serving You! battled well, but Teignmouth climbed back to third in the table, and with games in hand are still a good outside bet for the championship this year.

Wonford BetaBlockers opened up the gap at the top of the table, by beating Wonford Panthers two sets to one.

However, Blockers will probably see this is a point dropped, rather than four points gained, as they won the first two sets convincingly 15-4, 15-6, then relaxed to allow the Panthers back in to take the final set 15-12.

All credit to the Panthers though, they had to reorganise in the third set, following an injury to Wendy Fardon at the end of the second. She took full force of a Stu Gibbs spike straight in the face, and had to be substituted by Steve Craddock, who did well playing out of his normal position. Player of the match was Panther Liz Raine, who has organised a lot of confidence this season.

Crediton Spartans form has slipped a little recently. They won the first set against Torexe Sharks 15-9, but their opponents hit back in the second to even things up with a 15-7 win of their own.

With everything to play for in the final set, players became agitated and referee Martin Tugwell had to yellow-card both Spartan Alan Welch and Shark John Bennet.

It was the Sharks who came out on top in the final battle, taking the set 15-12, with their setter Sandra Trayner taking joint player of the match with Spartan Neil Davey.

In Division 2, Exeter University tucked another 3-0 triumph under their belt. This time it was a 15-5, 15-9, 15-2 win over Kilton Watersports.

Uni setter Shigeru Yamaha put on a great display to gain player of the match. The University now have 48 points, twice as many as their nearest rivals Kings School.

Torexe Eagles beat Wonford VolleyDolleys 3-0 at Broadclyst Sports Centre to keep them top of the ladies division.

Eagle Jacky Pike gained another POM award at the Eagles took the game 15-9, 15-2, 15-9.

Meanwhile Torexe Falcons upset the form books by beating second-placed Team Wrafton by two sets to one.

Falcon captain and POM Marie Carr led her side to a convincing 15-6 first set win, and when the Barnstaple side hit back to win the second set 15-9, the Falcons regained their composure to win the final set 15-11.
